SIXTY PLUS – OLLI A Program for Lifelong Learning July, 2018

Monday, July 9: "Urban Beekeeping: An Overview" Marc Johnson, Beekeepers Education Program

Join Sixty Plus for a talk with a local Beekeeping Association expert to learn about bees and beekeeping. This is increasingly important as we are looking for ways to help sustain and grow the bee population for years to come. Marc brings samples of equipment, observation hives, frames, combs and maybe even honey for tasting!

Marc Johnson has been keeping honeybees for five years. Currently he and his partner have about a dozen hives in and around western San Francisco. Marc serves on the Board of the San Francisco Beekeeping Association and volunteers time for beekeeping education as well as fostering better urban beekeeping.

Note Summer Location: The meeting will be held in Knuth Hall in the Creative Arts Building at 1:00 p.m. Social time will follow. Light refreshments will be offered afterwards in Room 154, directly across the hallway from Knuth Hall. Sixty Plus members whose last names begin with the letters Sav - Swi are requested to bring treats. If you are not attending, make sure you contribute or arrange to have someone bring something for you.

Monday, July 23: "Shakespeare in Disguise" Roberta d'Alois, Playwright and Artistic Director of Jump! Theatre

Most of us are probably aware that "West Side Story" is a version of "Romeo and Juliet." But did you know that the television show "Empire" is based on "King Lear" as are the book and movie, "A Thousand Acres"? And a Bollywood version of "Romeo and Juliet" even has a happy ending! In this presentation we watch a couple of clips and have a brief discussion of all the ways it is possible to adapt even a well-known text into something unrecognizable and still interesting.

Roberta D'Alois is a playwright, performer and artistic director of Jump! Theatre, which produces plays based on authentic stories of mental illness. She has an MFA from SF State in Creative Writing, and currently teaches writing at SF State and USF as well as classes for OLLI-SFSU.

Note Summer Location: The meeting will be held in Knuth Hall in the Creative Arts Building at 1:00 p.m. Social time will follow. Light refreshments will be offered afterwards in Room 154, directly across the hallway from Knuth Hall. Sixty Plus members whose last names begin with the letters TeV - Zin are requested to bring treats. If you are not attending, make sure you contribute or arrange to have someone bring something for you.

Shuttle bus service is not available during the summer months, but parking on-campus and nearby is available since few or no classes are likely on campus.

Hospitality Committee

For our first meeting on Sept. 10, to make our refreshment time a special occasion, we ask that Executive Board members contribute finger foods. To reacquaint ourselves with old friends and meet new ones, all members are requested to provide refreshments for the September 24th meeting.

For all subsequent meetings, starting in October, members are asked to provide refreshments according to the alphabetical order of their surnames. A schedule will be provided in the October Highlights so that you can find your turn to bring refreshments.

We will have a designated refreshment host for each meeting. The host is to bring the tablecloth, some paper plates and napkins, and any decorations desired; to help with set-up and clean-up; to thank members who bring the treats; to socialize; and to be sure that all leftovers are removed. The first members to be asked to serve as meeting hosts will be those who signed up for the Hospitality Committee on their membership renewal or application form.

President's Message – June, 2018

Hard to believe that the 2017-2018 membership year is coming to a close. We have only two more meetings in July, and then our August hiatus gives us a month-long break. Our meetings have been well attended by members and guests. Our OLLI partnership has brought us new members and opened up the OLLI offerings to the SixtyPlus membership.

Over the course of about twenty meetings, we have heard some interesting speakers (thanks to Vivian Imperiale), eaten probably several hundred cookies, and enjoyed coffee, tea and conversation. Thank you to everyone who brought cookies, served as host and/or helped with setup and cleanup of refreshments. I send a big thank you to Hospitality Chair Ann McGuire for making the calls to members prior to our meetings so that we have host, treats and a beautiful table for every meeting. Everyone enjoys “Cookie Time” so much.

I also want to extend my gratitude to the SixtyPlus board. I thank each and every one who has attended the board meetings and worked diligently to keep our organization active and interesting.

Our annual membership renewal is ongoing at this time. I encourage all members to renew promptly. We are hoping to grow our membership this year, so if you have friends who might be interested, please bring them to a meeting in July to try us out. We have printed extra membership applications for members to share with friends, colleagues and maybe a relative or two.

I have really enjoyed being President of Sixty Plus for the past two years. I am honored to continue in this position for the 2018-2019 membership year. Looking forward to camaraderie and friendship for the next year.

Chris Malfatti, President, Sixty Plus – OLLI at SFSU: 415-585-4811; cmalfatti@sbcglobal.net

Oregon Shakespeare Festival – October 16 – 20, 2018

This trip to Ashland, Oregon, has become a very popular event. Our delightful hotel is within walking distance of the theater venues and the many shops and restaurants in this charming town. The visit is enhanced by the pre-performance seminars offered by Dr. Marc Ratner, an accomplished and entertaining Shakespearean and theater expert who has shared his expertise on our previous tours.

Brown Bag Lecture

NO brown bag lecture on Fourth of July.

Summer Session 2018 begins June 25 – August 3
(Make-up week August 6 – 10)

Interest Group - Share a Book

July 17, 2018 - 11:00 a.m.

Unlike a typical book club, participants discuss books they have read recently and share recommended reading.

We invite members of the public to join us to check out our program.

Location: SF State's Downtown Campus, 835 Market St., Room 677

Healthier Living Workshop

Monday, July 2 - August 6 (6 weeks) 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Many people have chronic health conditions or lengthy recoveries in which they manage their own health situation, partnering with their doctors and other health care providers who only step in as needed.

This interactive workshop provides a wide range of tools and techniques, developed by Stanford School of Medicine, to self-manage one's own health. The workshop is led by two experienced facilitators, Debra Varner and Melinda Barnes. Their knowledge, energy and empathy make this a successful experience for the participants.

For a complete description please visit the OLLI website at <http://olli.sfsu.edu>. Please call Sixty Plus at 415-405-0489 if you have any questions.
